

Giants in Olden Times.
A correspondent of the Brooklyn Advertiser, referring to a late lecture by Professor Silliman, Jr., who mentioned the discovery of an enormous animal of the lizard tribe, measuring 80 feet in length, from which he naturally inferred, as no living specimen had been found, that all animals had greatly degenerated in size, confirms the supposition by referring to the history of giants in the olden time, of which he furnishes a list. From that, it seems that we, of the present day, are comparatively dwarfs, when placed by the side of the thirty feet gentlemen of antiquity! The shin bone of "Mr. Kentolochus Rex," described below, measured four feet, and he, according to the Abbe Le Chappe, was just the height of a race of people called Wotiacks! Verily there were "giants in those days!"

The giant exhibited in Rouen in 1735, measured over 8 feet.
Gorapins saw a girl who was 10 feet high!
The body of Grestes was 11 1/2 feet high!
The Giant Galbra, brought from Arabia to Rome under Claudius Caesar, was near 10 feet.
Fannman, who lived in the time of Eugene, measured 11 1/2 feet.

The Chevalier Scorg, in his voyage to the Peak of Tenerife, found in one of the caverns of that mountain, the head of Guanch, which had 50 teeth, and that his body was not less than 15 feet long!

The Giant Ferragus, slain by Orlando, nephew to Charlemagne, was eighteen feet high!
In 1614, near St. Germain, was found the Tomb of the Giant Isoret, who was 20 feet high!
In 1590, near Rouen, they found a skeleton whose skull held a bushel of corn, and whose body must have been 18 feet long.

Platons, saw at Lucerne, the human bones of a subject 19 feet long!
The Giant Bucart was 22 1/2 feet high; his bones were found in 1705, near the banks of the river Mordet.

In 1613, near a castle in Dauphine, a tomb was found 30 feet long; 12 wide, and 8 high, on which was cut on a grey stone the words, "Kentolochus Rex." The skeleton was found entire 25 1/2 feet long, 10 feet across the shoulders, and 5 feet deep from the breast bone to the back.

Near Mazarino in Sicily, in 1516, was found a giant 30 feet high! His head was the size of a hog's head and each of his teeth weighed 5 ounces. (Wonder if the dentists filled in with gold in his day?)

Near Palermo in Sicily, in 1548, was found the skeleton of a giant 30 feet long, and another 33 feet high, in 1550. Query! How much did his tailor charge for his pants?

Mr. Morse says in his Geography that there is upon the Rocky Ridge in the Island of Ceylon, a tomb of "immense length"—but does not say how many feet.

Og, King of Bashan's bedstead, was 9 cubits long, which, according to Doctor Adam Clarke, was 15 feet. How long did it take him to get asleep all over!

Goliath of Gath, was six cubits and a span—11 feet 3 inches. When the spies went to explore the country of the Canaanites, they reported the children of Anak as giants in whose presence they felt themselves to be but grasshoppers, and "just put foot for home," for fear that they should all be devoured of the giants, for the spies had said that they eat up the inhabitants of the land.

THE HAPPY FARMER.—It does one's heart good to see a merry round faced farmer. So independent, and yet so free from vanities and pride, so rich and yet so industrious—so patient and persevering in his calling, and yet so kind, social and obliging. There are a thousand noble traits about his character. He is generally hospitable—eat and drink with him, and he won't set a mark on you and sweat it out of you with double compound interest, as some I know will—you are welcome. He will do you a kindness without expecting a return by way of compensation—it is not so with every body. He is generally more honest and sincere—less disposed to deal in low and underhand cunning, than many I could name. He gives society its best support—is the firmest pillar that supports the edifice of government—he is the lord of nature. Look at him in his home-spun and gray—gentlemen—laugh at him if you will—but believe me, he can laugh back at his pleasures.

A WOMAN AND HER LOVER.—There is more reality than romance in the subjoined extract from a capital little story in a late number of the Knickerbocker:

"It is surprising how a woman will stick to her betrothed against the field." If I knew that her lover had scraped his mother to death with an oyster-shell, I should only make her a toe for life by the really friendly act of giving the information. A woman in such a case will doubt the testimony of a whole regiment under oath, and the evidence of her own senses into the bargain. Besides, if you could by some miracle, convince her, you would accomplish nothing, for she forgives even more obstinately than she believes, and unless you can actually produce before her eyes a previous living wife and five children, (all the bona fide property of her suitor,) you had much better let her alone."

Hope writes the poetry of the boy, but memory that of the man. Man looks forward with smiles, but backward with sighs. Such is the wise providence of God. The cup of life is sweetest at the brim, the flavour is impaired as we drink deeper, and the dregs are made bitter that we may not struggle when it is taken from our lips.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.
THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, remedying any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body. For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetters, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fistula, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.

S. L. wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons:
In Northumberland County—H. B. Masser, Sunbury; Ireland & Moxley, McEwensville; D. Kraus, Milton.
In Union County—J. Garhart, Selingsgrove; A. Gutwiler, Millburg.
In Columbia County—R. W. McCay, Washington.

Reading, March 14, 1843.
MR. OAKLEY—I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power lies, for the benefit of their fellow man, and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I am at once and conscientiously recommending it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcerous sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them, and had tried all the known remedies, including Swain's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck were completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has no equal.

JOHN MOYER, Tailor,
Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading.
Doughlassville, April 19th, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY.—My son Edmund Leaf, had scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norristown, and also Dr. Isaac Heister, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles, the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sores healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who saw him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine.

ROSE OINTMENT, FOR TETTER.
RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS.
The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application.
PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.
FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with Tetter on the Face and Head: the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking various remedies, including a number of bottles of Swain's Panacea. Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the Fall of 1836, the disease of the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis). In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits made by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were all cured by it.

JAMES DURNELL, No. 150, Race St.
The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent, May 14th, 1843.

Rose Ointment, for Tetter. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.
PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839.
THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetter in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease commenced generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which there has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. RICHARD SAVAGE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent, May 14th, 1843.

MEDICAL APPROBATION OF THE ROSE OINTMENT, FOR TETTER.
ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation above all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Baugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to secret Remedies.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836.
I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, inquired of my trying his preparation, of which he handed me a jar. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discountenance and disapprove of the numerous nostrums palmed upon the public by ignorant pretenders, I feel justice bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation, as it entirely cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications. DANIEL BAUGH, M. D.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent, May 14th, 1843.

WM. HEILMAN & CO., Commission & Forwarding Merchants, Foot of Willow Street Rail Road, ON THE DELAWARE.
HAVING associated with them Joseph Barnett, late of Easton, Pa., respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they have taken that large and well known store and wharf at foot of Willow Street Railroad, lately occupied by Jacob Martin, where they purpose doing a General Commission and Forwarding Business, and from the local advantages of the place being connected with all the public improvements that have their outlet in the city, they flatter themselves they will be able to do business to as great, if not greater advantage, and upon as reasonable terms as any other house, and they assure their friends, that any arguments made to them shall have their strict attention, and no exertions spared to give entire satisfaction.

They are also prepared to receive and forward goods to any point on the Delaware and Lehigh rivers, between Mauch Chunk, Easton and Philadelphia, via Delaware Division and Lehigh Canals; also, to any point on the Juniata river, or North and West Branches of the Susquehanna via Schuylkill and Union, or the Chesapeake and Tide Water Canals.

For the accommodation of boats coming or going via Schuylkill and Union Canals, a Steamboat will be kept expressly for towing boats from the Schuylkill around to the Delaware and back, which will enable merchants to have their produce delivered on the Delaware, and their goods shipped at a saving of 50 to 75 per cent., on the prices for hauling across, with these advantages they respectfully solicit a share of patronage.

MERCHANTS' HOUSE,
No. 237, North Third, above Callowhill St., PHILADELPHIA.

JOHN DUNCAN, late from the Pennsylvania Farmer, and Samuel Pike, Jr., late of American Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, take pleasure in acquainting their friends and the public generally that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel, recently built by the Messrs. Hart, on the same site once occupied by the old established Hotel known as the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhill St.

This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants; the arrangements for heating and ventilating each room is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all furnished in a neat style, so as to insure comfort.

The receiving parlors are also furnished in a superb style, the windows are on the French style, forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which, with the furniture, are entirely new.

From years' experience in hotel business, we trust, by strict assiduity to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best our market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors and wines of the most approved brands.
